

LONDON SEASON'S END

The General Election Will Give It a Death Blow.

Both Parties Actively Preparing for the Coming Fray.

Fourth of July Dinner to Be a Grand Affair—Society Events.

(Copyright, 1934, by the Associated Press.) LONDON, June 23.—The dissolution of Parliament, which, as the Marquis of Salisbury intimated in the House of Lords yesterday, will most likely take place July 5, will be the death-knell of the season here, and in a fortnight there will be a general exodus to the country.

The Princess of Wales and her daughters have planned to go to Denmark at the end of July, and are expected to remain in that country two months, the guests of the King and Queen of Denmark, the father and mother of the Princess of Wales.

The principal social event of the week will be the concert given to-night at the Queen's Hall, under the patronage of the Duke and Duchess of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, on behalf of the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. There will also be two extremely fashionable garden parties to-day.

The Bishop of London and Mrs. Temple's last party of the season will occur at Fulham Palace from 4 to 7 o'clock, while the Countess of Jersey will give her second open-air function at Osterley Park.

The arrangements for the Fourth of July dinner next Friday evening are now completed, and the affair promises to be replete with sentiment and patriotism.

A much larger attendance than ever before on a similar occasion is promised, and for this reason the immense banqueting room of the Holborn Restaurant has been engaged.

The decorations are to consist mainly of huge American flags, and the floral ornaments are to be on a more lavish scale than ever before.

The campaign will begin in deadly earnest next week, when Lord Rosebery, the ex-Premier, will fire the first battery of big guns for the Liberals, in his speech at the Royal Albert Hall, South Kensington, and the same day Sir William Vernon Harcourt, ex-Chancellor of the Exchequer, will pour hot shot into the Tory ranks.

Following the booming of these heavy pieces of political artillery will be heard a fierce reply from the batteries of some of the leaders of the Conservative and Unionist parties, including the Marquis of Salisbury, the Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, long called "Judas" by the Irish Nationalists, and then the firing will be taken up along the lines of both the Liberal and Conservative forces.

The League is convinced that the bank-ers' bill will be passed, and that the former Chancellor of the Exchequer, being forced to support the bimetallic resolution in the House of Commons, when he saw the possibilities of having to appoint delegates to a conference.

Commenting on the demolition of Lord Rosebery's castle, the Times expresses the opinion that the ex-Premier would have made an admirable Master of the Horse, and that his epitaph should be: "Here lies Archibald Philip Primrose, fifth Earl of Rosebery, once Prime Minister of England, who lost twenty seats and won two Daughters."

The Times says that Lord Londonderry declined the offer of the Privy Seal, with a seat in the Cabinet, because it carried no departmental work with it.

"We believe," says the Times, "that Lord Salisbury was particularly anxious to secure Mr. Curzon as Under Secretary, feeling that his own work in the Foreign Office would be materially lightened by such a brilliant lieutenant."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman writes to the Times this morning as follows: "When Lord Salisbury's secretary called upon me for the seals of office there was no suggestion, as is alleged, either of a command from the Queen or of relieving me of the necessity of journeying to Windsor to confer with Lord Rosebery, who agreed that it would be improper to thus surrender the seals."

CROKER SAILS SEPT. 14

Tammany Boss Coming Home for the State Convention.

His Visit Is to Be One of Business and Politics Combined.

Calls on Royal "Hergh Society" Regarding Cruelty Charges.

(Copyright, 1934, by the Associated Press.) LONDON, June 23.—Richard Croker has engaged passage for America for Sept. 14. This will take the ex-Tammany sachem home in time for the New York Democratic State Convention.

Mr. Croker will remain in New York until after election in November. His family do not accompany him on his visit to America, which is one of business and politics combined.

Mr. Croker called at the office of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to-day and had an interview with the Secretary of the Society regarding the allegation that he and his horse, Simms, had cruelly driven a horse to death.

Mr. Croker stated the facts as set forth in his letter to Mr. Henry Labouchere, Secretary of the Society, and also read the paragraph in Mr. Jerome K. Jerome's paper, which were cabled yesterday.

The Secretary commenting upon the references in Mr. Jerome's paper to Mr. Croker's connection with the Tammany organization, said that it was clear to his mind that the writer of the article had been misled.

Mr. Croker's connection with the Tammany organization, said that it was clear to his mind that the writer of the article had been misled. He was not suffering from a lack of Presidential limelight.

Mr. Croker and Mr. Manley will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a day or two. He is reticent on Silver and the Campaign of 1906.

Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, and the Republican National Committee, was a passenger on the American line steamer New York, which arrived this morning.

Mr. Manley was not prepared to discuss the matter, but he had not taken the trouble to ascertain what view are entertained abroad.

He was accompanied by a party which included Mr. Manley, who was not suffering from a lack of Presidential limelight.

Mr. Croker and Mr. Manley will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a day or two. He is reticent on Silver and the Campaign of 1906.

Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, and the Republican National Committee, was a passenger on the American line steamer New York, which arrived this morning.

Mr. Manley was not prepared to discuss the matter, but he had not taken the trouble to ascertain what view are entertained abroad.

He was accompanied by a party which included Mr. Manley, who was not suffering from a lack of Presidential limelight.

Mr. Croker and Mr. Manley will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a day or two. He is reticent on Silver and the Campaign of 1906.

Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, and the Republican National Committee, was a passenger on the American line steamer New York, which arrived this morning.

Mr. Manley was not prepared to discuss the matter, but he had not taken the trouble to ascertain what view are entertained abroad.

He was accompanied by a party which included Mr. Manley, who was not suffering from a lack of Presidential limelight.

Mr. Croker and Mr. Manley will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a day or two. He is reticent on Silver and the Campaign of 1906.

Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, and the Republican National Committee, was a passenger on the American line steamer New York, which arrived this morning.

Mr. Manley was not prepared to discuss the matter, but he had not taken the trouble to ascertain what view are entertained abroad.

He was accompanied by a party which included Mr. Manley, who was not suffering from a lack of Presidential limelight.

Mr. Croker and Mr. Manley will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a day or two. He is reticent on Silver and the Campaign of 1906.

Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, and the Republican National Committee, was a passenger on the American line steamer New York, which arrived this morning.

Mr. Manley was not prepared to discuss the matter, but he had not taken the trouble to ascertain what view are entertained abroad.

He was accompanied by a party which included Mr. Manley, who was not suffering from a lack of Presidential limelight.

Mr. Croker and Mr. Manley will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a day or two. He is reticent on Silver and the Campaign of 1906.

Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, and the Republican National Committee, was a passenger on the American line steamer New York, which arrived this morning.

Mr. Manley was not prepared to discuss the matter, but he had not taken the trouble to ascertain what view are entertained abroad.

He was accompanied by a party which included Mr. Manley, who was not suffering from a lack of Presidential limelight.

Mr. Croker and Mr. Manley will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a day or two. He is reticent on Silver and the Campaign of 1906.

CROKER SAILS SEPT. 14

Tammany Boss Coming Home for the State Convention.

His Visit Is to Be One of Business and Politics Combined.

Calls on Royal "Hergh Society" Regarding Cruelty Charges.

(Copyright, 1934, by the Associated Press.) LONDON, June 23.—Richard Croker has engaged passage for America for Sept. 14. This will take the ex-Tammany sachem home in time for the New York Democratic State Convention.

Mr. Croker will remain in New York until after election in November. His family do not accompany him on his visit to America, which is one of business and politics combined.

Mr. Croker called at the office of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to-day and had an interview with the Secretary of the Society regarding the allegation that he and his horse, Simms, had cruelly driven a horse to death.

Mr. Croker stated the facts as set forth in his letter to Mr. Henry Labouchere, Secretary of the Society, and also read the paragraph in Mr. Jerome K. Jerome's paper, which were cabled yesterday.

The Secretary commenting upon the references in Mr. Jerome's paper to Mr. Croker's connection with the Tammany organization, said that it was clear to his mind that the writer of the article had been misled.

Mr. Croker's connection with the Tammany organization, said that it was clear to his mind that the writer of the article had been misled. He was not suffering from a lack of Presidential limelight.

Mr. Croker and Mr. Manley will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a day or two. He is reticent on Silver and the Campaign of 1906.

Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, and the Republican National Committee, was a passenger on the American line steamer New York, which arrived this morning.

Mr. Manley was not prepared to discuss the matter, but he had not taken the trouble to ascertain what view are entertained abroad.

He was accompanied by a party which included Mr. Manley, who was not suffering from a lack of Presidential limelight.

Mr. Croker and Mr. Manley will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a day or two. He is reticent on Silver and the Campaign of 1906.

Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, and the Republican National Committee, was a passenger on the American line steamer New York, which arrived this morning.

Mr. Manley was not prepared to discuss the matter, but he had not taken the trouble to ascertain what view are entertained abroad.

He was accompanied by a party which included Mr. Manley, who was not suffering from a lack of Presidential limelight.

Mr. Croker and Mr. Manley will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a day or two. He is reticent on Silver and the Campaign of 1906.

Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, and the Republican National Committee, was a passenger on the American line steamer New York, which arrived this morning.

Mr. Manley was not prepared to discuss the matter, but he had not taken the trouble to ascertain what view are entertained abroad.

He was accompanied by a party which included Mr. Manley, who was not suffering from a lack of Presidential limelight.

Mr. Croker and Mr. Manley will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a day or two. He is reticent on Silver and the Campaign of 1906.

Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, and the Republican National Committee, was a passenger on the American line steamer New York, which arrived this morning.

Mr. Manley was not prepared to discuss the matter, but he had not taken the trouble to ascertain what view are entertained abroad.

He was accompanied by a party which included Mr. Manley, who was not suffering from a lack of Presidential limelight.

Mr. Croker and Mr. Manley will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a day or two. He is reticent on Silver and the Campaign of 1906.

Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, and the Republican National Committee, was a passenger on the American line steamer New York, which arrived this morning.

Mr. Manley was not prepared to discuss the matter, but he had not taken the trouble to ascertain what view are entertained abroad.

He was accompanied by a party which included Mr. Manley, who was not suffering from a lack of Presidential limelight.

Mr. Croker and Mr. Manley will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a day or two. He is reticent on Silver and the Campaign of 1906.

Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, and the Republican National Committee, was a passenger on the American line steamer New York, which arrived this morning.

Mr. Manley was not prepared to discuss the matter, but he had not taken the trouble to ascertain what view are entertained abroad.

He was accompanied by a party which included Mr. Manley, who was not suffering from a lack of Presidential limelight.

Mr. Croker and Mr. Manley will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a day or two. He is reticent on Silver and the Campaign of 1906.

TAMMANY ROW IN THE NINTH.

Independents Take Advantage of It and Secure More Recruits.

There are factional dissensions in the Tammany organization of the Ninth Assembly District, which under the new apportionment becomes the Seventh.

One faction is headed by the present district leader, James W. Boyle, whose chief lieutenants are Isaac Edesheimer and Theodore M. Roche.

Those who oppose the leadership of Mr. Boyle are headed by Isaac Edesheimer and Theodore M. Roche. The disorganized condition of Tammany men in the Ninth has given an opportunity to the Independent County men, Charles Stecker and Ernest Harver, acting as a sub-committee for that purpose, an opportunity to do some effective missionary work.

On Wednesday night Mr. Harver met by appointment a committee from Tammany. Many Tammany men were found ready to revolt, and others have been withdrawing and joining the Independent County Organization since election.

Subsequently the bears made another "drive" at the Industrials and Chicago stock. The Industrials, which were 107 1/2, 108 1/2, 109 1/2, 110 1/2, 111 1/2, 112 1/2, 113 1/2, 114 1/2, 115 1/2, 116 1/2, 117 1/2, 118 1/2, 119 1/2, 120 1/2, 121 1/2, 122 1/2, 123 1/2, 124 1/2, 125 1/2, 126 1/2, 127 1/2, 128 1/2, 129 1/2, 130 1/2, 131 1/2, 132 1/2, 133 1/2, 134 1/2, 135 1/2, 136 1/2, 137 1/2, 138 1/2, 139 1/2, 140 1/2, 141 1/2, 142 1/2, 143 1/2, 144 1/2, 145 1/2, 146 1/2, 147 1/2, 148 1/2, 149 1/2, 150 1/2, 151 1/2, 152 1/2, 153 1/2, 154 1/2, 155 1/2, 156 1/2, 157 1/2, 158 1/2, 159 1/2, 160 1/2, 161 1/2, 162 1/2, 163 1/2, 164 1/2, 165 1/2, 166 1/2, 167 1/2, 168 1/2, 169 1/2, 170 1/2, 171 1/2, 172 1/2, 173 1/2, 174 1/2, 175 1/2, 176 1/2, 177 1/2, 178 1/2, 179 1/2, 180 1/2, 181 1/2, 182 1/2, 183 1/2, 184 1/2, 185 1/2, 186 1/2, 187 1/2, 188 1/2, 189 1/2, 190 1/2, 191 1/2, 192 1/2, 193 1/2, 194 1/2, 195 1/2, 196 1/2, 197 1/2, 198 1/2, 199 1/2, 200 1/2, 201 1/2, 202 1/2, 203 1/2, 204 1/2, 205 1/2, 206 1/2, 207 1/2, 208 1/2, 209 1/2, 210 1/2, 211 1/2, 212 1/2, 213 1/2, 214 1/2, 215 1/2, 216 1/2, 217 1/2, 218 1/2, 219 1/2, 220 1/2, 221 1/2, 222 1/2, 223 1/2, 224 1/2, 225 1/2, 226 1/2, 227 1/2, 228 1/2, 229 1/2, 230 1/2, 231 1/2, 232 1/2, 233 1/2, 234 1/2, 235 1/2, 236 1/2, 237 1/2, 238 1/2, 239 1/2, 240 1/2, 241 1/2, 242 1/2, 243 1/2, 244 1/2, 245 1/2, 246 1/2, 247 1/2, 248 1/2, 249 1/2, 250 1/2, 251 1/2, 252 1/2, 253 1/2, 254 1/2, 255 1/2, 256 1/2, 257 1/2, 258 1/2, 259 1/2, 260 1/2, 261 1/2, 262 1/2, 263 1/2, 264 1/2, 265 1/2, 266 1/2, 267 1/2, 268 1/2, 269 1/2, 270 1/2, 271 1/2, 272 1/2, 273 1/2, 274 1/2, 275 1/2, 276 1/2, 277 1/2, 278 1/2, 279 1/2, 280 1/2, 281 1/2, 282 1/2, 283 1/2, 284 1/2, 285 1/2, 286 1/2, 287 1/2, 288 1/2, 289 1/2, 290 1/2, 291 1/2, 292 1/2, 293 1/2, 294 1/2, 295 1/2, 296 1/2, 297 1/2, 298 1/2, 299 1/2, 300 1/2, 301 1/2, 302 1/2, 303 1/2, 304 1/2, 305 1/2, 306 1/2, 307 1/2, 308 1/2, 309 1/2, 310 1/2, 311 1/2, 312 1/2, 313 1/2, 314 1/2, 315 1/2, 316 1/2, 317 1/2, 318 1/2, 319 1/2, 320 1/2, 321 1/2, 322 1/2, 323 1/2, 324 1/2, 325 1/2, 326 1/2, 327 1/2, 328 1/2, 329 1/2, 330 1/2, 331 1/2, 332 1/2, 333 1/2, 334 1/2, 335 1/2, 336 1/2, 337 1/2, 338 1/2, 339 1/2, 340 1/2, 341 1/2, 342 1/2, 343 1/2, 344 1/2, 345 1/2, 346 1/2, 347 1/2, 348 1/2, 349 1/2, 350 1/2, 351 1/2, 352 1/2, 353 1/2, 354 1/2, 355 1/2, 356 1/2, 357 1/2, 358 1/2, 359 1/2, 360 1/2, 361 1/2, 362 1/2, 363 1/2, 364 1/2, 365 1/2, 366 1/2, 367 1/2, 368 1/2, 369 1/2, 370 1/2, 371 1/2, 372 1/2, 373 1/2, 374 1/2, 375 1/2, 376 1/2, 377 1/2, 378 1/2, 379 1/2, 380 1/2, 381 1/2, 382 1/2, 383 1/2, 384 1/2, 385 1/2, 386 1/2, 387 1/2, 388 1/2, 389 1/2, 390 1/2, 391 1/2, 392 1/2, 393 1/2, 394 1/2, 395 1/2, 396 1/2, 397 1/2, 398 1/2, 399 1/2, 400 1/2, 401 1/2, 402 1/2, 403 1/2, 404 1/2, 405 1/2, 406 1/2, 407 1/2, 408 1/2, 409 1/2, 410 1/2, 411 1/2, 412 1/2, 413 1/2, 414 1/2, 415 1/2, 416 1/2, 417 1/2, 418 1/2, 419 1/2, 420 1/2, 421 1/2, 422 1/2, 423 1/2, 424 1/2, 425 1/2, 426 1/2, 427 1/2, 428 1/2, 429 1/2, 430 1/2, 431 1/2, 432 1/2, 433 1/2, 434 1/2, 435 1/2, 436 1/2, 437 1/2, 438 1/2, 439 1/2, 440 1/2, 441 1/2, 442 1/2, 443 1/2, 444 1/2, 445 1/2, 446 1/2, 447 1/2, 448 1/2, 449 1/2, 450 1/2, 451 1/2, 452 1/2, 453 1/2, 454 1/2, 455 1/2, 456 1/2, 457 1/2, 458 1/2, 459 1/2, 460 1/2, 461 1/2, 462 1/2, 463 1/2, 464 1/2, 465 1/2, 466 1/2, 467 1/2, 468 1/2, 469 1/2, 470 1/2, 471 1/2, 472 1/2, 473 1/2, 474 1/2, 475 1/2, 476 1/2, 477 1/2, 478 1/2, 479 1/2, 480 1/2, 481 1/2, 482 1/2, 483 1/2, 484 1/2, 485 1/2, 486 1/2, 487 1/2, 488 1/2, 489 1/2, 490 1/2, 491 1/2, 492 1/2, 493 1/2, 494 1/2, 495 1/2, 496 1/2, 497 1/2, 498 1/2, 499 1/2, 500 1/2, 501 1/2, 502 1/2, 503 1/2, 504 1/2, 505 1/2, 506 1/2, 507 1/2, 508 1/2, 509 1/2, 510 1/2, 511 1/2, 512 1/2, 513 1/2, 514 1/2, 515 1/2, 516 1/2, 517 1/2, 518 1/2, 519 1/2, 520 1/2, 521 1/2, 522 1/2, 523 1/2, 524 1/2, 525 1/2, 526 1/2, 527 1/2, 528 1/2, 529 1/2, 530 1/2, 531 1